

Canada's Democracy Week – September 14–21, 2015

LET'S GET CANADA READY TO VOTE!

National Democracy Challenge

Who can enter?	Young Canadians aged 14 to 17 are invited to answer a question related to this year's Canada's Democracy Week 2015 (CDW2015) theme: Let's Get Canada Ready to Vote!
Key Dates	The National Democracy Challenge (NDC2015) question will be released on August 17, 2015. The submission deadline is November 9, 2015.
Categories and Prizes	Contestants will win prizes for the best submissions in each category. Winners will be announced in March 2016 and will receive the following prizes (or equivalent) in these categories:
VIDEO	1st Place – Bursary for one student to attend the Encounters with Canada Youth and Democracy week in April 2016 2nd Place – GoPro Hero4 camera 3rd Place – $200 Best Buy gift card
IMAGE/ARTWORK	1st Place – 64GB Apple iPhone 6 2nd Place – 64 GB Kobo Arc and $100 Chapters gift card 3rd Place – $200 Best Buy gift card
WRITING	1st Place – Trip to Winnipeg to participate in a human rights program at the Canadian Museum for Human Rights 2nd Place – Apple iPad Air 2 64GB 3rd Place – $200 Best Buy gift card
SCHOOL (most entries)	The school with the most eligible entries will win a bursary for one student to attend the Forum for Young Canadians week-long civic education program in Ottawa in March 2016.

Partners	 Forum for Young Canadians is providing a bursary for one student from the secondary school or Cégep with the most Challenge entries. The student will travel to Ottawa to attend Forum's week-long civic education program.
	 Encounters with Canada, a program by Historica Canada, is providing a bursary for the 1st place winner in the video category. The winning student will travel to Ottawa to attend Encounters with Canada's Politics in Canada week – a week-long civic education program, which takes place in April 2015.
	 The Canadian Museum for Human Rights is providing a bursary for the 1st place winner in the image category. The winning student will travel to Winnipeg to participate in a human rights program in the Spring of 2016.

For more information:

www.democracy-democracy.ca

democracy-democratie@elections.ca

Join the conversation:

#demcda #CDW2015 #NDC2015